No 19 - May 2001

EDITORIAL

"Now is the Winter of our discontent made glorious Summer " - well not quite, but the signs of Spring are at last present.

We are now complete in numbers and already the new Councillors are showing their keenness as can be seen by this edition of the Pump. Contrary to the jaundiced view shown by some, the Parish Council is very active and really does try to meet the needs of its constituents. Just a glance through this edition should convince you that we are active, our one regret being that our powers are limited by statute. We can complain to higher authorities, just as each individual can by picking up the telephone. Should you ring the Parish Office, please understand when you are told that the matter that concerns you is outside our remit. We shall note your enquiry or complaint and endeavour to use our best efforts to help you but we cannot work miracles. However, change is on the agenda. The Government, in its wisdom, has brought out plans to change the focus of Local Government. Already District Councils are grappling with changes and trying out the form of government deemed best suited for them. Teething troubles are evident but, eventually, they will be tried and tested and should finally be for the better.

Proposals on responsibilities could change things for you in our community. It is likely that powers will be passed down tiers of Local Government so that matters are dealt with more locally and where people are more involved, knowing the particular problems, and best able to deal with them in the interest of the local community.

Details are not yet complete but are beginning to gel and, eventually, it will depend on us and of course on you.

To become a quality Parish Council, we must demonstrate that we are capable, give best value for money and are all elected. This last point is where you most definitely come in for it depends on the willingness of the electors to put a cross where it matters, first having offered themselves for service by contesting available seats on the Council. Apathy can kill any experiment however well thought out and worthwhile.

Representing your fellow residents on the Parish Council is not a matter of reward nor of glory, as those of us who have served for some years know. It is a matter of hard work for little thanks but then we did not expect thanks when we offered, our main concern was the village we are proud to live in. We value your support so when some venture fires your imagination why not ring up your local councillor and say so, loud and clear.

This edition contains articles on current activities both social and practical. It should give some idea of the scope of our concerns but every meeting that we hold brings up new concerns. Any concern is usually left to the Clerk to action but he does it better when individual councillors help and they are showing their willingness more and more.

All our meetings are publicised in the Library - why not acquaint yourself and come along to show your support and find out more of what we do. All too often the cry is: "But what do the Parish Council do?" A case in point is the weekly shopping bus which has now been running for many years on a Friday to take our Senior Citizens to the shops in Watford. It is a weekly treat for them and is much appreciated. However, we have recently gained some new passengers who claim not to have heard of it until recently. How do we let you know. It is publicised in this newsletter, in the Library, at Residential Homes and in Doctors' Surgeries. This seems adequate but does not seem to reach everyone. Read this edition and perhaps you will understand better what we are trying to do.

SOME CHILDHOOD REMINISCENCES OF A SEPTUAGENARIAN

Firstly I must confess to having lived in Croxley Green only since 1994, although I had some knowledge of the area since moving to Oxhey in 1969, especially after our elder daughter married Ian Langrish in 1983.

Ian is the youngest son of the late Ray and Mary Langrish, Ray having had a hardware shop in Vicarage Road for some years. The family lived in Canterbury Way.

My own formative years from 1934-57 were spent in Southall, the town at that time having a mostly white population, and my reminiscences here cover my recollections of some of the aspects of living during the pre-war and early war years.

Regular home deliveries and services - (we were an ordinary family)

A baker's round with a horse-drawn enclosed cart.

Sacks of coal carried from an open lorry and tipped into our coal shed, situated just behind our back door. (No one had central heating in those days!)

A deaf itinerant window cleaner called from time to time to clean the windows of our two-storey, three-bedroom semi.

Shopping

Like most families we did not have a 'fridge' and so my mother would walk about a mile each way to our local Sainsbury's store several times a week. This store had separate counters for different products, at each of which the customers would queue to be served.

Very few commodities were pre-packed: the bacon would be sliced on a circular cutter, the butter would be made up with what looked like wooden bats and the cheese cut with a wire cutter. Most of these activities would be done as orders were given by the customers. Finally, all the goods would be paid for in cash.

Just a few recollections which might stir the memories of some of our older residents, while appearing puzzling and archaic to our younger readers.

BARTON WAY TENNIS COURT

Barton Way Tennis Court still stands lonely. Should the Parish Council create a multi-activity area that could be used for other sports including tennis?

It could have goals at either end with basketball hoops, which would have steel mesh centre that allowed a ball to rebound off. It could also have cricket stumps incorporated, so that people could play not only within the court, but both ends could be used at the same time.

If you would like this to happen and be budgeted for along with permission by Three Rivers District Council drop me a line at the Parish Council Office and also contact your District Councillor.

Cllr R. J. Ridley

EXCITING TIMES AHEAD

It seems exciting times lie before us as the Parish Council is now restored to it's full complement of 16 councillors, ready and willing to serve the people of Croxley Green.

As the youngest Councillor I am happy to report that, despite popular rumour, on the whole the council is attempting to work together to serve all sections of the community.

Be the individual Councillor young or old, male or female, modernist or traditionalist, each is doing their best to raise your concerns in the Chamber and the present balance seems to be serving the Council well thus far. It seems we are a diverse but compatible bunch!

Personally, it has been a busy couple of months for me as a new Councillor, meeting residents over a number of issues- including the proposed development at OMT – and I have also been addressing concerns over the growing pot- hole problem that exists in Croxley at the moment.

A report will be winging its way to the appropriate authority in due course.

As I say exciting times are ahead and hopefully we will have your support to carry some of these aims through to help improve life in our village.

Cllr Kerron Cross

SPRING WILL BE LATE AGAIN THIS YEAR

David Wynne - Jones

Spring is in the air after a long wet winter, the birds are singing, cherry trees are in blossom and the trees are green again.

So what is different about this first Spring of the new millenium in Croxley Green?

The answer is the emptiness of the countryside – the lack of opportunity to walk out on a spring morning on one of the many beautiful footpaths which we maintain so carefully, the inaccessibility of Croxley Common Moor, The Green and in fact practically all the areas that normally make Croxley Green and surrounding areas a ramblers' paradise.

We are in fact "excluded" by law from these green and leafy areas, just as they start to beckon us after a thoroughly miserable winter.

Our problems are small, indeed very small, when compared to other areas for example the Lake District – one of our most beautiful National Parks.

Beloved by Wordsworth the great poet and a vital part of our national heritage. All over our country the way of life is changing, involving particular misery for those living there, such as farmers.

Quite naturally people who own horses, dogs and in fact just love the open air are going to suffer badly in this second Battle of Britain against a dreaded and cunning invader. But like the last hard fought battle many years ago, this too will end in victory-though at a cost.

At this time with people driven out on to the main roads of Croxley Green for exercise, the Council asks all drivers to exercise particular care and consideration, particularly at pedestrian crossings and at night as the number of pedestrians increases.

People do not want to be there but dogs have to be walked, children have to go to school, horses must be exercised away from the bridleways.

In the last Battle of Britain everyone co-operated against the invader and we won – Let us all remember that this new battle is every bit as dangerous but with patience we will overcome.

ADMINISTRATION ASSISTANT

Applications are invited for the position of an Administration assistant – a part time position working 25 hrs per week, duties to include word processing / typing requirements together with all normal clerical activities pertaining to an office environment.

ONE WAY TO GO!

Traffic and cars/ vehicles everywhere, what to do? Lack of parking, traffic flow problems,
Does this sound like your road?

Should we make more roads one way? Some will say that they will become rat runs, will they? Do you believe a one way system would benefit your road? Crescents for example. First in last out would it be that awkward?

Are you concerned that the lack of passing space in your road would restrict emergency vehicles? Do you believe that, if your pavement was wide enough, parking bays could be created? Would you rather have a large grass verge or a smaller one with additional parking, making the roads wider?

It is something to consider, and it has already been done in some roads. Whether your road qualifies I do not know, that is up to Three Rivers District Council /HCC Highway Partnership and our District / County Cllrs.

CARS AND THE COMMUNITY

Have you noticed that more and more front gardens are disappearing along the picturesque streets of Croxley Green? "Car Ports" are in fashion and quite rightly so, they are helping to get vehicles off the street. New Road for example was built over 100 years ago and suffers badly from the current build up of traffic. Many roads all over Croxley Green were built in the thirties when a car was an unheard-of luxury, consequently they do not have garages, many park at the side of the road: but with the modern fashion of having two or three cars per house this makes a nightmare of driving along these avenues at night or at weekends.

The answer seems to be to sacrifice your front garden. I have been a keen gardener for years but I have decided reluctantly to plan to remove my beloved plants and put down bricks – this space will take three cars. My only problem is to organise it tastefully so that I can keep a small flowerbed at the edge. At least there won't be any more "Turf wars" with my neighbours about the precise bit of footpath I can park on and I will be doing my small part to ease the dreadful congestion in my particular road.

Luckily many old houses in Croxley Green have large back gardens- I wish mine was larger. I intend to apply for an allotment in Barton Way to get rid of my surplus energy. With all the new facilities it will be a pleasant place to spend summer evenings.

Finally the Parish Council can do something to help streets which will soon be without the greenery of front gardens, It can in certain cases plant trees judiciously to bring that flush of green to your street. In at least one avenue in Croxley Green it has been very successful, all you need to do is make a request (having firstly consulted all your neighbours.) and the Environment committee will consider it in detail.

Car ports are probably one of the answers to Croxley Green's clogged up streets but your Parish Council can still help with roadside saplings in certain cases, just ask! Make a plan today!!

You may be required to show proof of eligibility.

The Parish Bus has now been running for several years and is well supported. Though bus passes are not accepted, the return fare is less than concessionary fares and the bus goes to your door. Shopping is thus made easier for our senior citizens. Many friends are made on this service, not least between the volunteer conductors and the passengers.

We have recently picked up some new passengers who professed to have only just heard of the service. We are therefore printing the timetable yet once again in the hope that it will reach the target for which the bus is operated. Though we are running at nearly capacity on some journeys we have adapted before and can do so again.

TREE PLANTING

The tree planting in Stones Orchard had been delayed by severe winter conditions, finally took place on Monday 12th March 2001.

The planting involved four schools:

4 children from Harvey Road School
2 classes from Malvern Way School
12 children from Little Green School
23 children from Yorke Mead School

There were 12 trees planted in all, 8 of these were fruiting Cherry trees, 2 were Pear trees with 1 Damson and 1 Plum tree. Unfortunately, Rickmansworth Park School was not able to attend this year as it clashed with their "cycling proficiency week."

Cllrs Gallet, Jefford, Ridley and Seeley, together with the Parish Ranger were also in attendance to help the children.

Cllr Christine Jefford

WHEELY GOOD BUY

Croxley Green Parish Council remains committed to encouraging healthy environmentally friendly forms of travel in the village.

It is for this reason that the Council has decided to purchase three cycle racks, which will be placed around Croxley Green for the benefit of those who prefer pedal power to petrol power. We will be consulting the public over where the racks would be of best use, but at the moment we are considering sites at the top and bottom shops in Baldwin Lane and at the top of Mill Lane on Watford Road.

The cycle racks take the form of a "toast-rack" design, which will enable up to six bikes to be securely and safely locked up while their owners can make use of the local shopping facilities.

It is hoped that the "toast- racks" will increase security, encouraging more people to jump on their bikes for the journey to the shops, whilst at the same time reducing the amount of bikes left strewn on the pavements waiting to trip up passing pedestrians.

The racks are seen as a good investment given that the Council can remove them from any given site and relocate them elsewhere in the Parish if the need arises. If you have any suggestions regarding the placement of the new "toast - rack" please do not hesitate to pass your comments on to the Parish Council offices.

Cllr Kerron Cross
(Croxley North)

IT'S A KNOCK OUT

Cllr Ridley

On the weekend of September 15-16th, the Parish Council are endeavouring to hold an "It's a Knock Out" contest for adults and children, along with a fair type event.

We have approached all the public houses along with the Guild of Sport and the Community Centre to enter a team of 8 people to participate. The local primary schools - year 6 - pupils will be asked to participate.

We hope to run the children's event in the early afternoon and the adults in the mid-afternoon. We have had a good response from some of the public houses and have given each of these establishments an entry form.

If you belong to an organisation or club that might wish to enter please contact the Parish Council for an application form as we do need a certain number of teams involved to make it successful and some teams may drop out before the day.

We are asking some of our adjoining Parishes to attend and if they agree we intend, depending on how many accept our invitation, to challenge them to face our champions team in an inter-Parish "It's a Knock Out." The integral event to take place on our green in the first year and to visit them in the respective years.

If the event is a success, entering a team will bring it's own rewards.

It promises to be wild and wet but most of all we hope it will be a fun day that will leave happy memories for both participants and the supporters of the teams.

CHRISTMAS ILLUMINATIONS

We hope everyone saw and enjoyed the Christmas illuminations that the Parish Council installed on the lamp posts in Watford Road over last Christmas. It is the intention of the Parish Council to extend the illuminations in degrees over the next few years into other areas of Croxley Green.

We would also like to thank those residents of Croxley Green who made such a special effort to decorate their houses with lights etc over the Christmas period, which certainly added a sparkle to the festive season. Amongst those houses were:

215 Baldwins Lane
261 Baldwins Lane
222 Baldwins Lane
226 Baldwins Lane
25 Dover Way
27 Dover Way
14 Durrants Drive
53 Fuller Way
55 Fuller Way
2 Harvey Road
1 Owens Way
3 Owens Way
46 Owens Way
73 Repton Way
75 Repton Way
94 Watford Road

to mention just a few. We will look forward to seeing them all again come Christmas 2001 plus some additions!

However, special mention should be made of Mr & Mrs Edwards of 3 Lancing Way who, having decorated their house, also collected money for charity. They, in fact, collected the sum of £1275.00 and this sum has been donated to the Keech Cottage Children's Hospice at Bedford - a really great effort!

Cllr Christine Jefford

NEW COUNCILLORS

Who says that interest in local politics is dead in Croxley Green.

Since last issue there have been two robust and hotly contested elections in Croxley North Ward. The candidates focussed on the issues and there was a good debate.

Now for the first time in ages we have a complete new Council with no vacancies whatsoever. We are able to benefit by the new blood and enthusiasm, a group that now represents ALL of Croxley Green. Particularly welcome are those now representing the new Byewaters Estate in Croxley South - this new development has had a lot of teething problems which hopefully your Council will be able to address at a Parish level.

So when you scan the list of Councillors on the front of the magazine, remember that their telephone numbers are not there purely for decoration. Ring them if you have a problem. They are busy people but never too much so to hear your point of view - otherwise they would not have become Councillors in the first place. Remember we are here to serve you and make Croxley Green an even more pleasant place to live.

"THE NOISE"

"The Noise" is a youth based church initiative, which has been undertaking the task of making a difference to life in Croxley Green.

Over the May Bank Holiday (4th-7th), "The Noise" are planning a whole host of activities including:

- A free car wash
- Litter and Graffiti clear ups
- Communal gardening projects

"The Noise" have also been conducting a survey on the Pot Hole problem in Croxley and have put together a detailed report on this issue.

WE DO HAVE A CARING COMMUNITY!

I am writing in response to the article 'Community Life' in the November edition of the Parish Pump which bemoaned the fact that local people are less caring and willing to help others, as my perception and experience is the exact opposite.

As Manager of Home-Start Watford & Three Rivers, a charity which supports families with young children, and a Croxley Green resident myself, I have always been proud that so many of our volunteers come from Croxley Green – a fact which endorses my belief that it is a very caring and generous community.

I am obviously sorry to learn that other groups do not share the same view but I think one should be careful not to assume or label the whole population as uninvolved, when there are so many different activities and opportunities out there.

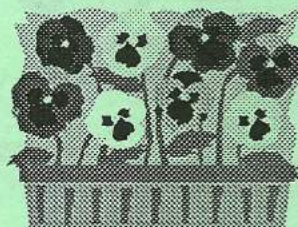

This year is the International Year of Volunteers and there will be a lot of publicity and celebrating around the world to recognise the time, energy and commitment so many people give. Our organisation will certainly be joining in and conveying our sincere thanks to our volunteers.

Come on, be more positive and recognise the warm hearts and helping hands that are so numerous in Croxley Green!

THE HORSE TROUGH
ALL SAINTS CHURCH/GREEN

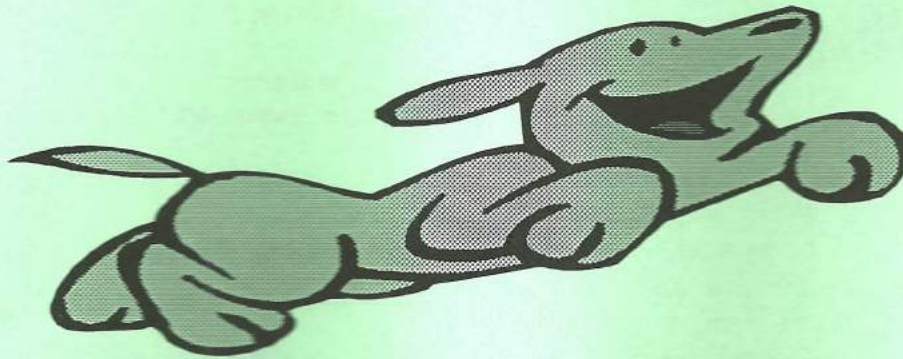

I hope that everyone noticed the display of flowers that provided a splash of colour throughout last summer in the horse trough outside All Saints Church on the Green. The plants have now been replaced with daffodil and narcissus bulbs, together with pansy plants for the spring, which should create a cheerful patch of colour soon.

Many thanks are due to Jackie Hughes and Mary Emerson of the Sportsman Public House for keeping the water trough watered through the summer months last year.

As a matter of interest, I am reliably informed that there are four such troughs in the County of Hertfordshire. We are lucky enough to have one in Croxley Green, I should be most interested to know where the other three are situated in the county – does anyone know?

WINTER VISITORS

I am sure that many readers have found this winter particularly dreary. The seemingly endless rain from the end of October, every day dank, wet and grey. Then snow, frosts and cold bleak days and as I write, the rain is once more with us, mixed with sleet.

"Never mind" I keep telling myself "surely Spring will be here soon, it will get warmer." This will mean the departure of all the little birds which have given me so much pleasure during the last four months.

The old lilac tree outside the window has had about two dozen birds on the various food dispensers hanging on the branches. There have not been so many greenfinches this year, these have been outnumbered by chaffinches and goldfinches. Two or three pairs of siskins have appeared and of course, a myriad of blue/great/coal tits. A wren darts out of the undergrowth occasionally and the garden robin and blackbird who prefers it if I throw some quartered apples. The shouting, squabbling starlings fill the lawn whenever bread is left.

So, although I look forward to sunny warm days, I hope with the return of the winter at the end of the year, my visitors will return to brighten my days.

CROXLEY GREEN GARDEN COMPETITION

pleasure of meeting you all again this summer.

The competition is, of course, open to all residents in the Croxley Green Parish.

At long last the severe winter weather of 2001 is now becoming an unpleasant memory. Parks and gardens are now giving way to the arrival of spring – this being in evidence from all the bulbs, etc, now being in flower!

Perhaps this is also a suitable time for some forward planning – once again the Parish Council will be holding their annual Garden Competition in 2001 – you will find an appropriate entry form below. We were greatly impressed with the standard and variety of gardens entered in the competition last year and I would like to see even more gardens entered in 2001. I know there are so many lovely gardens in Croxley Green, both large and small, back and front and of course, public houses and shops – I am convinced there must be more hiding somewhere just waiting to be discovered! Judging will start in early July with final judging on Saturday 28 July 2001. We all greatly enjoy both viewing and judging the gardens but it is also a pleasure to meet all the enthusiasts who join in the fun of the competition – we do hope we will have the
